

Radiologic Technologist (Full-Time/Part-Time/PRN)

Radiology Technologists are responsible for obtaining/performing imaging studies to assist the medical staff with diagnosis and treatment of emergency and urgent care conditions and provide support for medical/nursing staff.

POSITION REQUIREMENTS:

High school graduate or equivalent

Certified by the State of Texas as a licensed Radiology Technologist and must maintain current

Licensure

AART registry and CT certified/registry

Be proficient in X-ray and CT modalities

Prior employment experience in an emergency department setting is preferred

Current BLS/CPR certification

Completes annual educational requirements

Must be able to read, write and speak English fluently.